

Você assistiu o treino hoje?

(a) How are these two men related?
Qual é o parentesco entre estes dois homens?

(b) What is that guy (in the sweater) doing there?
O que esse rapaz (de malha) está fazendo lá?

(c) What are they going to talk about now?
Sobre o que eles vão falar agora?

- (a) They are not related. They're classmates. Eles não são parentes. Estão na mesma classe.
(b) He stopped by because he wanted to talk to the coach. Ele deu uma passada lá porque queria falar com o treinador/técnico.
(c) The guy in the sweater is going to talk about how he doesn't like soccer. O rapaz de malha vai falar sobre como ele não gosta de futebol.

- (a) They are brothers.
(b) That guy in the sweater talked to the soccer player after the practice, because he was watching him.
(c) They are going to talk about the practice.

- (a) Weeeeell, they're cousins! They aren't reeeeeeally similar, but... 50%, I think.
(b) He was watching his cousin. They live together, and the sweater guy would like to practise/practice too.
(c) About the practise/practice, and, on the way home, probably about personal stuff, or work... don't know!

- (a) They are son and father.
(b) He stopped by because he wanted to give him a ride.
(c) His father is going to talk about the test that the boy will take today.

- (a) They are brothers.
(b) He's looking for his girlfriend.
(c) They'll talk about their family's problems.

- (a) These two men are son and father.
(b) He is watching his son in a soccer game.
(c) They are going to talk about the son's performance in the game.

- A) They are twin brothers and are going to play football.
- B) He wanted to meet his brother and play soccer.
- C) They are talking about the game now.

- a) They are friends.
- b) He wanted to find his friend, who was playing soccer.
- c) They are talking about the game and about their friends.