

Sra. Larkin, a sra. está segura agora.

(a) Which door is that in Mrs. Larkin's house? Que porta é aquela na casa da sra. Larkin?

(b) Why did she call a locksmith? Por que ela chamou um chaveiro?

(c) Why is the locksmith talking about her safety? Porque o chaveiro está falando sobre a segurança dela?

(a) That's the door to her painting studio. É a porta do ateliê de pintura dela.

(b) She lost her keyring the other day, and needs new keys. Ela perdeu o chaveiro dela outro dia, e precisa de chaves novas.

(c) He found out that one of the locks was not working, and he fixed it. Ele descobriu que uma das trancas não estava funcionando, e ele a consertou.

(a) That is the front door of her house.

(b) Because she was locked inside.

(c) Because he fixed the door.

(a) That is a safety door.

(b) Because the locks on the door were broken.

(c) Because it is very important to oil the locks, so they work well.

(a) That's the front door.

(b) Because she couldn't get in.

(c) Because it is dangerous to be outside.

(a) That door is the front door of her house.

(b) Because a thief broke into her house and stole her jewelry.

(c) Because the new locks will keep the lady safe in her house.

- (a) That's the front door.
- (b) Because someone tried to break into her house yesterday.
- (c) Because he has already fixed the lock.