

(a) Who are "those people"? Quem são "aquelas pessoas"?

(b) Who is the woman holding the sports equipment? Quem é a mulher segurando o equipamento esportivo?

(c) Who is the other woman (in the dress)? Quem é a outra mulher (de vestido)?

Aquelas pessoas definitivamente gostavam de esportes!

(a) They're people who passed away and left everything to this charitable organization. São pessoas que faleceram e deixaram tudo para essa organização de caridade.

(b) She's in charge of the storage room. Ela é responsável pelo depósito.

(c) She is the director of this charitable organization. Ela é a diretora dessa organização de caridade.

a) They're people who needed extra money and sold their sports equipment to their neighbor and best friend.

b) She is their neighbor and best friend.

C) She is a new neighbor who wants information about a garage sale.

a) They are retired sports pro.

b) She is the principal of a school whose sports equipment has been donated.

c) She's one of the school students.

a) They're rich people who wanted to donate all the sports equipment to a public school.

b) She's the woman who started the campaign.

c) She's friends with those people and she is impressed by her friends' generosity.

a) They were tourists. They went away this morning and left their sports equipments at the hotel.

b) She is a receptionist who found their equipment.

c) She's her manager.

1) They are very close friends who have lived a different life style.

2) Her name is Maggie. She has dedicated her life to practicing different types of sports.

3) Her name is Kate. She has always been worried about her appearance. She wants to keep being beautiful and charming.

a) They are the husbands of the girls that are shown in the picture. In this moment, the women are packing their suitcases because the two couples will take a vacation together.

b) She is one of the wives, who is taking care of the equipment for her husband.

c) She is the other wife.